Nicholas is a highly talented and effective leadership coach who has worked closely with Search Associates and many of our candidates and member schools since early 2018, always with impressive results. I can strongly recommend him.

David Cope, Director of School Relations, Search Associates, UK.

"I am a seasoned, well-travelled and innovative leader with 43 years of experience in education. Having worked with Nicholas and Persyou over the last two years I have been personally inspired and my team was transformed. He was able to present the many complexities of working in different contexts and the challenges that are present in leadership".

Dr Theochari, Head Teacher, Cyprus.

"Nicholas McKie truly has the gift of leadership coaching to help you navigate to where you want to go. What I appreciated the most about him was that he did not give me the answers but like a great coach would do, he allowed me to find my answers then he built on it".

Rao, information technology specialist, Bahrain.

"The real benefit is less anxiety, less stress, more time to step back and reflect. I found myself able to achieve things that had been beyond my reach before".

Mark,
Business Curriculum
Director, Kent, UK.

“Nicholas has a breadth of knowledge and authenticity that commands instant respect from his peers and consequently for any group of educators lucky enough to find themselves working with him and the Persyou team. As a new school at Letovo we wish to continue our work with Persyou in areas of confident management strategies in our bilingual setting”.

Dianne, Head of boarding and pastoral care, Russia.

“I would like to recommend Nicholas McKie at Persyou. He was fantastic at helping me to gain confidence in myself through several coaching sessions. He worked with me to refine my ability to recognise my own skills and talents and have the confidence in upcoming interviews. He also helped me refine my CV and cover letter. This resulted in me moving from a long term Middle Leader into my first Deputy Principal position”.

Eryn, Deputy Principal, Australia.

“Nicholas of Persyou was excellent at coaching me. He was very good at discovering my strengths and giving me a very sharp focus”.

Liam,
Senior leader,
international school,
Beijing, China.

“Nick recognised within me, the qualities that I had and he allowed me to develop those. Not knowing how to do that, he showed me the way”.

Dianne,
Director of Personal
Development,
UK.

“I would absolutely recommend Nick as a coach. He is able to listen and he genuinely cares about people and their focuses in life”.

Rachel,
educational HR Director,
UK.

“I would recommend Nicholas as a coach because in a few short minutes, he made me realise the positive things about myself, that I hadn't even realised in the last 10 years”.

Ahmed, Education Director, Saudi Arabia.

Thank you Nicholas for a fantastic and unique professional development. I now feel I know my goal as a leader and what kind of leader I want to be.

Iman,
Childhood Protection Lead, Kuwait.

“The Persyou ‘Coaching Fundamentals’ course delivered in Bangkok was a superb introduction to coaching methodology, techniques and skills. The feedback from attendees was excellent, including comments such as: ‘awesome’ and ‘inspiring’ ”.

Dr. Machin,
Associate Director of Strategic Development, Asia.
